DISPOSAL OF E-WASTE ITEMS

SGND Khalsa college recently disposed off its electronic waste items, commonly called as e-waste. The e-waste disposal committee, constituted by the principal, carried out the process of disposal. Following are the members of this committee:

1. Dr Manmohan Kaur, Principal
2. Dr Gurmohinder Singh
3. Dr GK Arora
4. Dr APS Arora

For disposing of the e-waste, the college followed the E-waste (management and handling) rules, 2011 laid down by the Ministry of Environment and Forests. Specific rules that were to be followed by Delhi University Colleges, were also enquired at the Stores and Procurement section office of Delhi University, North Campus. Based on all the information obtained from the above sources, the committee decided to sell the e-waste by inviting quotations for the same.

Procedure
The items that were to be disposed comprised of computer systems, computer related accessories and digital media and communication equipment. There were no scientific equipment in the list of e-waste items.

Following steps were followed for the e-waste disposal:

1. Based on approval from the Governing body, a list of all e-waste items that were designated as scrap and had to be disposed, was prepared (See annexure I). Majority of the items were those that were beyond repair and the remaining were those that were no longer in use due to their outdated technological features as validated by the IT incharge of the college.
2. Following this, all the items were collected from their different locations and stored at one place.
3. A Quotation Invitation letter (QIL) was uploaded on the college and University Website on 8 September 2016, inviting quotations for the e-waste from authorized/registered collection centres or registered dismantlers or recyclers authorized by the State Pollution Control Board (See Annexure II). The interested dealers were given a period of six days for surveying the items following which they were required to submit the quotations to the Section Officer (admin).
4. The Section officer received four quotations from various dealers at the end of the allotted period. Following were the companies which submitted the quotation:
   a. M/s Earth Waste Management
   b. M/s Jaineex Computers
   c. M/s Haseen Ahmed
   d. M/s Giriraj Metal
5. The quotations were opened in the presence of all the committee members. It was found that M/s Jaineex computers had made the highest bid for the e-waste items. The committee unanimously decided to sell off the e-waste items to M/s Jainex computers for the quoted price of Rs 51,000/- (Rupees Fifty One Thousand only).
