

Event- Panel Discussion on Role of Women in the post COVID economy.

Date- 30th, January 2021

Number of Participants- 100

SOFICA had conducted an awe-inspiring panel discussion on 30th January 2021, the theme for which was “Role of women in the post COVID economy”. We had on the panel the most exemplary speakers: Ms. Sadhika Tiwari (Principal correspondent Indaispend, India) , Ms. Neha Gupta (Director M&A, Deloitte, India), Ms. Anpayani Gupta Kabra (Stockbroker, India) and Mrs. Arpita Mukherjee (Professor ICRIER, India) . We were fortunate enough to have Mr. Bilal A. Lashari (Development Practitioner, Pakistan) as the moderator of the panel discussion. Topics such as the role of women informal sectors, gender-responsive economy, etc were touched upon. After each speaker threw light on their respective topics, our moderator came up with relevant questions for the speaker to answer. The virtual conversation lasted close to two hours.

The event was an immense success and we saw tremendous participation of students as well as teachers across the country. The strength of the audience of more than 100. Last 25 minutes were allotted to the questions and answers round in which the panelists responded to the questions brought by the audience.

