Main Ideas	The main motive of the talk was to educate the students about Indian Modern Literature, different texts in the language, and how it has seen progression over the years. We were introduced to many under-appreciated authors and poets, like Muktibodh and Ibopishak, whose works and translations have created a serious ripple in the world of Indian Literature, as we know it.
Opinions	The students from Year II and Year III, along with the teachers present found the talk to be insightful. It introduced many research opportunities for students and teachers alike. We learned about many under-appreciated authors and how their work has affected and impacted this field of research.
