

Name of the Event: Seminar on Overseas Education

Date: 25th February 2020

Organizer: The Economics Society, KIRT

KIRT - The Economics Society of Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College, organised a seminar on Overseas Education, in collaboration with Global Opportunities. Global Opportunities Pvt. Ltd. is India's leading education consultant, specialising in student recruitment from India for its global network of 500+ institution partners. They are acquainted with major countries such as the United Kingdom, the United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Ireland, Singapore, Dubai, Malaysia, and many others. They provide free education counselling and other assistance needed to pursue tertiary education abroad.

The seminar included a description of the opportunities available in the global market, as well as their scope. They concentrated mostly on the master's programme and all of the requirements for admission and continuation of this programme. They even interacted with students and addressed their detailed questions, such as whether they were eligible for a scholarship and what the visa requirements were. And, what documents are needed for the admissions and visa applications?

There were a plethora of other concerns too. The speakers had a wealth of knowledge and were able to dazzle the students with their eloquence and skill set. The event drew a big turnout, and the student reception was overwhelmingly positive.
