

Title of the Event: Launch of Incubation Centre

Organized By: Udyamita, the Entrepreneurship cell

Date: 9th November, 2016

Udyamita, the e-cell of SGND Khalsa College, has taken major strides towards the promotion of entrepreneurship among students by launching its own Incubation Centre.

The incubation centre has been designed specifically to help current and future entrepreneurs in their journeys. The platform provides various services for startups from different sectors. It also promotes thinking of new ideas by providing information on the ever changing business sector.

For the launch, the college invited some experts in the field of business and management. The expert panel consisted of Dr. Jatinder Singh, Mr. Kanishk Kumar Abhishek, Ms. Sera Arora and Mrs. Geetanjali Khanna.

Udyamita invited applications from eligible students, who have decided to start their own ventures and thus help them in growing their startups.

The poster features a central graphic of a purple rocket with a white window and yellow flames. The background is a vibrant pink and purple geometric pattern. Text is arranged around the rocket, providing event details and partner information.
