

Event Report

Organizing society: KIRT

Name of the event: Mudra'20

Date: 16th January

Mudra'20, an online annual fest organized by KIRT, is all about the economy and the way that market works.

It consists of Khel Vikalpa, which unravels plot centered mysteries and this quiz will test your knowledge about the web series, Inside edge while simultaneously allowing you to flex your economics chops.

Mishran, has been primed to test the imaginative and strategic skills that would compel you to think out of the box.

Arthashastra Vigyan, it has been organized to test your economic and business chops with a series of questions that compel you to think differently by solving the questions using the clues provided within the time limit.

Whistle Stop of Trade helped the participants to navigate through the intricacies of transactions in share markets.

