

RUBRU PROGRAM BY DEPARTMENT OF PUNJABI

Rubru programme was organised by the Department of Punjabi in the Khalsa College. In this program Punjabi writer Bachint Kaur had informed the students about her autobiography titled as "Pagdandiyān". This program was started by the faculty of the department of Punjabi Dr. Paramjit Kaur. In this program not only the teachers of Department of Punjabi had participated rather other teachers of the other colleges had also participated. Dr. Bachint Kaur had informed the students not only about her life rather also described the struggle faced by her in her life. Students also participated in the programme and also asked some questions from the writer. Dr Baljinder Chauhan convener of the Department of Punjabi had welcomed the guest. Other faculty members such as Dr Bhupinder Singh Bakshi, Dr Beant Kaur, Dr Jaswinder Kaur Bindra, Dr Vinayneet Kaur and Dr Paramjit Kaur Kamboj also asked some questions from the writer and availed the valuable information. The purpose of this program was face to face Conversation between the writer and students and to enhance the knowledge of students.