

Rangarang three - day college program

New Delhi :Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College Dev Nagar

On the morning of 13th February 2018, the three day annual cultural program 'Surlok' started at Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College, Dev Nagar. Mr. Ashok Kumar was the Chief Guest on this special occasion. He has been teaching in this College and is now the Deputy Director, Department of Environment, Government of India. The principal of the college, Dr. Manmohan Kaur, Dr. Ranjit Singh Sahni Dr. Gurmohinder Singh, Convener of Arts and Culture Barjinder Singh Chouhan was present. The program began with the singing of the word. Guests were greeted with a bouquet of flowers and a shawl.

Highlighting the specialty of the day, Principal Madam said that on this very day New Delhi was given the status of capital. Today is also the birthday of Bharat Kokila Sarojini Naidu. The chief guest on the occasion Ashok Kumar said that he taught in this college for three years and got full support from the college for the preparation of civil service. "I am just happy to be here," he said. It would be great if they could do something for college. " Under the cultural programs, a number of competitions were held with a view to showcase the diversity of Indian culture and hone the creative talents of the students. On the first day, traditional programs like 'Hari Jas Gain', 'Aaro Classic Gain', 'Desi Beats', 'Beautiful Turban' and 'Nook Drama' were followed by innovative competitions like 'Ad Mad', 'Chitra Katha Photography', 'Dashbansh' and 'Nazam Poetry Fair'. Added this time.