

Encore event: Online talk by Ms. Sumita Tiwari, Educationist, Publishing Professional and ELT Specialist.

Topic: Career Options after English Honours

Date and time: 28th September 2020, 3:50 P.M.

A talk was organized by Encore, the literary society of the Department of English on "Career Options after English Honours." Starting with the introduction of English honours as a subject and various dimensions of the field, Ms. Sumita emphasized upon the choices that a learner can make while following his/her interest. Using John Holland's hexagonal model of career choices, the speaker focused on the skills a learner requires to build a work personality. She further elaborated upon potential career options such as, advertising, media, publishing, film-making, and the skills students may need to develop for optimum opportunities. Career options not only in new-age jobs, such as self-start ups, blogging, content writing, etc. were discussed but choices within academics (masters, ELT trainers, research, TKT, government jobs, internships) were also introduced by Ms. Sumita in order to render the listeners with multiple possibilities after graduation in English Honours. The focus was particularly directed towards the preparation one has to do before opting any of the professional fields in the near future. The event was concluded with a vote of thanks by the convenor of the English Literary Society Dr. Indra Kaul.

The students/listeners of English Honours were largely benefited from the talk and the event was well attended by participants from both from within and outside the college.
