

Report of Inter College Case Study Competition held on 29th January, 2021 on “Trade Tales: Insights of Dalal Street”

Trade Tales: The Insights of Dalal Street was an inter college case study competition conducted on 29th January, 2021 by KIRT: The Economics Society of Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College to expand the horizons of the students on such a crucial element of our economy. It was conducted via online platform. The total number of 250+ responses were received. The participants were provided with the case studies to be solved on 29th January 2021 through WhatsApp following which, they were asked to submit their responses by 11:59 PM of 31 January 2021 via Gmail. The solution had to be submitted in a PDF format and could have been made in the form of a Word document or a Power-Point presentation saved as a PDF. The participants were required to clearly state all the assumptions made while forming the solutions.

Towards the end of a Hypercompetitive evaluation process, the results were announced through the Instagram handle of the society in which Vasu Agarwal and Avnish

Agarwal from Shaheed Sukhdev College of Business Studies were declared as the Winner and runner-up, respectively. Sahishnu Sharma from Atma Ram Sanatan Dharma College was the Second Runner-up. The curiosity, energy, exploration, and intelligence showed by all participants in the event were astonishing. The event concluded on a positive note, taking into consideration the feedback given by the participants.

