

PROGRAMME NAME: B.A All Hons. G.E (Semester III)
COURSE NAME: Making of Post Colonial India
SEMESTER DURATION: July-November

WEEK	TOPIC(S)	TEACHING METHODOLOGY ADOPTED/CONTINUOUS INTERNAL EVALUATION
1-4	Laying the foundation of Independent India, making of the constitution and linguistic re-organization of the states.	Concept Building method, Lecture method, Question answers session, assignment, discussion of the relevant readings for the topic.
5-7	Envisioning a new order, economic development, Five-Year plans, Problems of Development-Punjab and Bihar, India's Foreign Policy till 1964.	Concept Building method, Lecture method, Question answers session, internal test, discussion of the relevant readings for the topic.
8-11	Democracy at work, Congress and Various Political Parties, Left Parties, caste politics, Dravidian movement, women and politics, Hindu Code Bill, Status of Women in India Report.	Concept Building method, discussion of various aspects of democracy, Lecture method, Question answers session, internal test, discussion of the relevant readings for the topic.
12-15	Emergency and after, railway strike, J.P Movement and emergency, developments in the 1980's- coalition politics, Mandal commission and aftermath, judiciary, civil society and rights, popular and parallel cinema.	Concept Building method, Lecture method, Question answers session, assignment, discussion of the relevant readings for the topic.
15-16	Revision
	Dispersal of Classes	