

PROGRAMME NAME: B.A Hons.(Semester III)
COURSE NAME: History of India-IV c. 1200-1500
SEMESTER DURATION: July-November

WEEK	TOPIC(S)	TEACHING METHODOLOGY ADOPTED/CONTINUOUS INTERNAL EVALUATION
1-4	Survey of Sources: Persian in Tarikh Traditions, Barani and Mushtaqi, Malfuzat and premakhyans, inscriptions and regional identity, architecture of Hampi.	Concept Building method, Lecture method, Question answers session, Assignment, discussion of the relevant readings for the topic.
5-8	Political Structures: Sultanates of Delhi, Transitions on ruling elites, Service cultures, iqtas, Articulating political authority-monuments and rituals, consolidation of identities with reference to Rajput and other warrior lineages, Political structures of Gujarat and Vijaynagara.	Concept Building method, Lecture method, Question answers session, test and assignments, discussion of the relevant readings for the topic.
9-12	Society and Economy: Ecological context, agrarian production, Technology and Changes in the Society, Monetization, Market regulations, Urban Centres, Trade and craft.	Concept Building method, Lecture method, Question answers session, discussion of the relevant readings for the topic.
13-15	Religion, Society and cultures with reference to Sufi Silsilhas: Chishtis and Suhrawardis and Bhakti, Sant Traditions-Kabir and Nanak, Cults-Jagannath and Warkari , Gender Roles-Role of Women Bhaktas and rulers, terms of identification.	Concept Building method, Lecture method, Question answers session, discussion of the relevant readings for the topic.
	Dispersal of Classes	