

PROGRAMME NAME: B A Hons. (Semester VI)
COURSE/ PAPER NAME: History of Japan and Korea (1868-1950s)
SEMESTER DURATION: January-April

WEEK	TOPIC(S)	TEACHING METHODOLOGY ADOPTED/CONTINUOUS INTERNAL EVALUATION
1-2	Transition from Feudalism to Capitalism [a] Crisis of the Tokugawa Bakuhan System [b] The Meiji Restoration; limits to modernization [c] Economic change: Agrarian Settlement; fiscal policies; Capitalism and Industrialization.	Class Lectures, tutorials, Documentary films on the process of industrialization, arrival of Commodore Parry and end of Japanese Isolation/ capitalist forces at work in Japan. Students are advised to explore the search engine 'Jstor' for relevant articles for the topics of this unit.
3-4	Democracy and Militarism [a] Popular/ People's Rights Movement; gender [b] Meiji constitution; political parties [c] Militarism and fascism.	Class lectures, tutorials, documentary films on Japan's Popular Rights Movement/ demands of the popular leaders and the process in which their demands were incorporated in the Meiji Constitution/ documents to show the various Articles of the Constitution/ movies on Japanese militarism/ use of PPT slides to show Japanese militarism and German Nazism/ use of search engine 'Jstor' for the relevant articles of this unit.
5-6	Japanese Imperialism 1868-1945: ideology; expansion and conflict.	Class lectures, tutorials, use of map to get an idea of Japanese expansionist designs for South East Asia/ use of search engine Jstor for relevant articles/ Journals such as The American Historical Review for further information.

7-8	American occupation of Japan and post-War reconstruction.	Class lectures, tutorials, use of map to see that how USA started the process of reconstruction of Japan in the post war era/ use of search engine Jstor for relevant articles/ Journals such as The American Historical Review for further information.
9-10	KOREA The Old Order and institutional decay: Joseon	Class lectures/ tutorials/ students are advised to consult the journals such as Modern Asian Studies for further studies/.
11	MID-SEMESTER BREAK
12	Korea's relations with China, Japan and western powers.	Class lectures, tutorials, Documentary films on the various aspects of the foreign policy of Korea with its neighbor countries and the western world/ Journals on the Korean History such as Modern Asian Studies may be consulted/ use of search engine 'Jstor' for further reading.
13	Attempts at social, political and economic reform.	Class lectures, tutorials, Documentary films on the channels such as Discovery, History etc. on reforms undertaken in varied sectors/ students are advised to refer the Journals such as Modern Asian Studies/ use of PPT to show the slides on the relevant parts of the topic/use of search engine 'Jstor' for further readings.
14	Japan's colonization of Korea and growth of Korean Nationalism (1910-1945) [a] 1910-1919: Consolidation of Japanese power [b] 1919-	Class lectures, tutorials, Documentary films on the channels such as Discovery, History etc. on Japan in Korea and the Korean

	1931: March First Movement (1919); Saito Reforms of 1920s [c] 1931-1945: War mobilization; Japanese policy of assimilation; Korean response.	resistance/emergence of Korean nationalism/first world war and Korea/ March First Movement/ Intra war years/ Aggressive Korean nationalism and Japanese imperialism/ students are advised to refer the Journals such as Modern Asian Studies/ use of PPT to show the slides on the relevant parts of the topic/ use of search engine 'Jstor' for further readings.
15	The Korean War	Class lectures, tutorials, Documentary films on channels such as Discovery, History etc. on the Korean War/ students are advised to refer to Journals such as Modern Asian Studies/ use of search engine 'Jstor' for further readings.
	Dispersal of Classes	