

Semester: 1

Course: SEC

PSC 1st year

Name of the Paper: Working with People

Question Bank :

1. Explain the concept of self-awareness and its importance in developing personal and professional self.
2. Discuss professional ethics including responsibility, accountability, loyalty, commitment, and cultural sensitivity.
3. Describe the process of goal setting and time management techniques for effective fieldwork.
4. Elaborate on strategies for rapport building and sustaining communication during field practice.
5. What are the key elements of preparing field work learning plans? Provide examples for working with children or youth groups.
6. Explain the importance of documentation in fieldwork, including case records and community profiles.
7. Describe the Johari Window model and its application in understanding self and improving interpersonal communication.
8. Discuss SWOT analysis and its role in mobilizing community support, networking, and advocacy.