

Semester: 2

BAP 2nd year

Name of the Paper: Indian Government and Politics Question Bank

1. Discuss the making of the Indian Constitution. Examine the philosophical foundations of its preamble.
2. Analyze the powers and position of the President of India. Is the President a mere rubber stamp?
3. Elaborate on the functions of the Prime Minister and Council of Ministers. How does the principle of collective responsibility operate?
4. Examine the composition, powers, and changing nature of the Indian party system.
5. Discuss the role of the Election Commission of India in conducting free and fair elections.
6. Critically analyze the working of federalism in India. Examine the major trends in Centre-State relations.
7. Examine the nature and role of regional parties in Indian politics.
8. Discuss the challenges to Indian democracy. How can they be addressed?