

Semester: 8

BAP – 4th year

Name of the Paper: Analysis in Politics

Question Bank

1. What is Political Analysis? Discuss its importance and different methods used in analyzing political phenomena.
2. Examine content analysis as a tool for political research. How is it applied to study election manifestos?
3. Discuss the utility of discourse analysis in understanding political communication and power relations.
4. What is rational choice theory? Critically evaluate its assumptions in explaining political behavior.
5. Explain game theory and its applications in international relations and electoral competition.
6. Analyze the strengths and limitations of case study method in political science research.
7. Discuss statistical methods in political analysis. How do correlation and regression help in hypothesis testing?
8. What is comparative method in political analysis? Examine Mill's methods of agreement and difference.