

Semester: 8

BAP – 4th year

Name of the Paper: Ethics, Politics and Governance

Question Bank

1. What is good governance? Explain the World Bank's characterisation of good governance.
2. Discuss the inter-relationship between state and civil society.
3. Analyse the various dimensions of human-environment interaction in the context of ethical governance.
4. Examine the ethical foundations of public administration. How do they guide policy implementation?
5. Critically evaluate the role of corruption in undermining democratic governance.
6. Discuss the principles of ethical leadership in politics. Provide examples from Indian context.
7. What is the significance of whistleblower protection in ensuring ethical governance?
8. Analyze the tension between political expediency and moral principles in governance.