

Semester: 8

GE – 4rd year

Name of the Paper: Fundamental Rights, Duties and Directive Principles of State Policy

Question Bank

1. Discuss the changing relationship between Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles of State Policy through important judicial pronouncements.
2. "Fundamental Rights are the Magna Carta of the Indian Constitution." Examine the statement.
3. Critically analyze the scope of Article 21 - Right to Life and Personal Liberty.
4. Examine the concept of Fundamental Duties. How effective have they been in promoting constitutional values?
5. Distinguish between justiciable and non-justiciable rights. Discuss the significance of Directive Principles.
6. "Directive Principles of State Policy are the conscience of the Constitution." Comment.
7. Analyze the conflicts between Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles. How has the Supreme Court resolved them?
8. Discuss the importance of Article 44 (Uniform Civil Code) as a Directive Principle.