International Conference

Ghadar Movement and the Role of Indian Diaspora in India's Freedom Struggle

23 - 24 February, 2024

 Hotel Best Western Summerlea
Jalandhar, Punjab

About the Conference

The quest for India's independence from British colonial rule is a chapter marked by diverse movements, ideologies and the unwavering spirit of its people. Among the remarkable episodes in this struggle, the Ghadar Movement stands out as a beacon of resistance led by the Indian diaspora.

Ghadar Conference is being organised at the opportune time to reflect on India's journey to independence, to learn from our history and to envision a roadmap for a strong, resurgent and united India on the threshold of its 'Amrit Kaal'. The conference aims to contribute, by fostering exchange of diverse perspectives, to the academic discourse surrounding world history and inspire a renewed appreciation for the intertwined destinies of India and its diaspora.

Conference Themes (Call for Papers)

- Historical Context and the evolution of the Ghadar Movement.
- Role of Indian Diaspora in India's freedom struggle.
- Ideological underpinnings and Heroes of the Ghadar movement.
- Analysis of the Socio Cultural and Geo Political conditions during the Ghadar era.
- Role of Ghadar Movement in shaping the Indian independence movement.
- Contribution of Ghadar movement to nationalist ideologies and anti-colonial sentiments.
- The legacy of the Ghadar Movement in post-independence India.
- Role of language and culture in nurturing the connect of diaspora with motherland.
- Role of Indian diaspora in emerging India
- Lessons from the Ghadar movement for the young India.
