Activities 1. The event began with a welcome and introduction of the freshers 2. A movie based on the revolt of 1857 was screened for the students, which enhanced their understanding of the historical event in an engaging and visual manner. 3. A Talent Hunt was organised, providing students with a platform to showcase their creativity and talents. 4. The names of the selected Mr. Arnav and Ms. Tanisha were announced as part of the event.
Main Ideas 1. Welcoming the Freshers: Introduce new students to the History Department, faculty, seniors, and the academic environment. 2. Introducing VIRSA: Familiarise freshers with the History Society, its activities, events, and opportunities for participation. 3. Connecting History with Cinema: Use a movie screening to make historical learning more engaging and accessible beyond textbooks. 4. Exploring the Revolt of 1857: Provide students with a visual understanding of the causes, events, personalities, and significance of the Revolt of 1857. 5. Creating Interaction: Encourage discussions between freshers, seniors, and faculty through the screening and post-screening conversation. 6. Making Orientation Engaging: Combine academic orientation with an interactive cultural and educational experience to create a welcoming start for new students.
