

Event Report

Organising Society : KIRT

Name of Event : EMANATION

Date : 13th February, 2017

Kirt organized its annual fest Emanation 2017 in collaboration with Vanaj the Commerce society of Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College. The astounding fest had various events such as Koffee with Khalsa, which was our own take on the classic show Koffee with Karan and aimed to hook participants by its unconventional approach. It had 3 rounds - Guess mess, quick quiz and a rapid fire. It was a fun take on serious business and economic problems and planned to bewitch the audience with its witty and fun appeal.

Marketneeti was a place for all the future marketers to display their creativity. This event was a platform to exhibit the inner creativity of participants in a manner that is beneficial for their future.

Shutter up was an annual photography competition to capture facets of the nation stirring demonetization. The event was a different approach to presenting the views of participants on a very important economic issue - Demonetization.

Trading Tussle was a game of stock exchange to take the participants through the main moves of share transactions.

Artha-Shastra was a case study competition where participants were asked to present their opinions on real-life situations.

Brain-a-thon, is a marathon for the minds captivated by economics. It was a flagship event initiated by KIRT.

