

CERTATUS INTRA MUN; 5th APRIL, 2018

“What you do makes a difference and you have to decide what kind of difference you want to make”

To make a difference is the prime goal of MUNs. They affect the way one perceives people, thoughts, situations and how one deals with them. The impact that they make on one is great and acknowledging the growing culture of MUNs in the society and its need to provide a platform for young exploring minds is very crucial. The CERTATUS (MUN) society of Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College, University of Delhi organized its first “CERTATUS-INTRA MUN” on 5th April, 2018, with great zeal and pride. The two committees that were simulated were EUROPEAN UNION and ALL INDIA POLITICAL PARTIES MEET. Both committees with their agendas promised much intense and heated debate over the conference. The event was an attempt by the society to expose people to the formal and diplomatic debates with a level of intensity to them that makes you stop and think.

The session started with words of enlightenment by our respected principal Dr. Manmohan Kaur and felicitations of our respected and supportive convener Mrs. Meena Singh. Secretary General, Arunav Sharma declared the committee open to the debate and started the session with great enthusiasm among delegates and Executive Board alike.

The AIPPM was chaired by Ayaan Mudra Rakshasa, a respected name in the MUN circuit. The committee saw a very intense deliberation on the agenda ‘India Border Disputes’. The delegates discoursed on the agenda and strived to reach a solution for the grave situation on the borders and finally came to the conclusion of a mutual press release, announcing their motives and resolutions made to the media. The committee concluded with a positive note with delegate representing SONIA GANDHI bagging the prize as best delegate and delegate representing NARENDRA MODI as high commendation.

The European Union saw a more analytical and research based debate on the agenda of ‘Effect of BREXIT on European Economy’ with Arunav Sharma as honorable chairperson. The committee saw a battle of wits among delegates with varying opinions on the matter. The delegate of France won the best delegate with high commendation being delegate of United Kingdom.

The whole event was planned with minute details and was efficiently and effectively managed by well competent members of the society with great success. All in all, the whole event CERTATUS-INTRA MUN was another success in the books of society and a promise for the students to look forward to next conference.
