KIRT: The Economics and Business Economics Society of Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College organised an inter-college debate competition where students from different colleges and universities participated. More than 150 participants were recorded. This debate competition was held to test a student's ability and interest in economics with the current changes in it. Basically the idea of this debate was to aware people about our economy and the changes taken by our government for it. The time to speak for the topic was about 1 or 1 ½ minute per speaker and students from another colleges could interject a speaker for the same and the time for that was 1 minute which makes the total of 2 ½ minute per speaker. About 14 teams were screened off after the first round and only 12 of them could make it to the next round. Second round was played enthusiastically by the participants and then after the winners were to be decided. The winners were chosen on the basis of how fluent and confident they were during their debate and how much they knew about the given topic. The winner who got the best speaker award was Jagannath Jha. The best team award was given to Team 3 as both the team members were confident throughout their debate and the award of best interjector was given to Jagannath Jha as well.
