Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College
Dev Nagar, New Delhi - 110005

	Kum ar Antardhwani - Amit Tiwari
Welcome Speech by:	Dr. Abhishek Sharma
Activities (if any) The whole event of dekh tamasha consisted of competition among different teams in street play and the event of Antardhwani consisted of competition among different participants in monologue performance.
Main Ideas 1. These competitions were organized to showcase different stories through street plays and monologue performances. 2. The judges evaluated the performance of participants and facilitated the best performances. 3. Their feedback encouraged other participants to improve their craft and deliver better performances. 4. This directly enriched the culture of storytelling that is a sole purpose of these events.

The poster is set against a background of red stage curtains. At the top, a blue banner with gold borders contains the college's name and logos. Below this, the text 'Surlak 2026' is written in a cursive font, followed by 'NEPATHYA The Dramatics Society is organising'. The main title 'Antardhwani' is in a large, stylized blue font, with 'Mono Act Competition' underneath. Two circular inset photos show a male and a female performer on stage. The date '7th April' is prominently displayed in the center. At the bottom, contact details for Ritik Kumar, Manpreet Kaur, and Rishikesh are listed, along with a QR code and the names of the convenor and principal.
