

Title of the event: Desi Beats, Folk Dance, Surlok, 2019

Organized by: Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College

Date: February 13, 2019

Number of Participants: 10-12 teams

Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College keeping its tradition in practice organized Surlok in February 2019. In the event, one session for folk dance also named as desi beats was specifically slotted, for encouraging inter-college folk dance competition. Considering the nature of event, around 10-12 colleges participated such Maitreyi College, Sri Guru Tegh Bhadrur Khalsa College, Mata Sundri College, among others. In the event students presented various forms of folk dance such as Haryanvi, Gidda, Bhangra, among many. Since, the event was organized by the college itself, so bhangra team of the Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa college gave special performance but did not participate, as they were part of the hosting college. The audience was mesmerized with the enthusiasm, dedication, and performance of the students. The event ended with the announcement of winner, providing certificates and trophy.