

CERTATUS: The MUN society of Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College organised a mini-MUN cum orientation on 23rd January 2023.

This event was titled “कूटनीति”, this word is borrowed from the Sanskrit language which means diplomacy. The team prepared two committees for this Intra-MUN, the first one being United Nations Security Council and the second one was Council of Delhi University Students.

The agenda of United Nations Security Council was Deliberation on the possible effects of Indo Chinese border conflicts, the Executive Board of this committee consisted of Mr. Shivansh Sangwan (MBA student at IMT Ghaziabad) and Mr. Abhay (Masters student at St. Stephens). The agenda of Council of Delhi University Students was Discussing Delhi University's minimum compulsory attendance rule (66.67%), this committee was chaired by Mr. Vikas Raj (Masters student at Kirori Mal College) and Mr. Vinayak Pandey(Graduated from Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College).

This event was started by an opening speech by Arnav Rozario and Joydeep Paul, they started the ceremony by giving the students a description of the history and achievements of Certatus, the meaning of United Nations and Model United Nations thus, serving the purpose of an orientation. The convenors, Dr. Meena Singh and Dr. Jasmine Kaur both gave speeches to boost up the confidence of the delegates. The delegates were then shifted to their designated rooms for the two separate committees.

UNSC consisted of 22 delegates and DUC consisted of 17 delegates. The Executive Board explained the whole process of conducting the committee as well as the points that are used in the MUN's. to the delegates in both the committees. The EB took the roll call and asked the delegates to give out their names for the General Speaker's List, they were given a time limit to prepare their speeches and then present it before the EB. The EB noted down each and every point made by the delegates and judged them on the basis of their content, their speaking skills and their research work.

Towards the end of the event, the delegates from both the committees came together in the seminar hall for the closing ceremony. The organising committee together with the executive board discussed the speeches of the delegates and came to a consensus on the names of the delegates who deserved to win the intra-MUN. The principal, Dr. Gurmohinder Singh announced the winners. In DUC Ms. Tanvi Sharma and Lakshay Sharma bagged 1st position and 2nd position respectively. In UNSC, the delegate of Russia and the delegate of China bagged 1st and 2nd position respectively. The Principal, Dr. Gurmohinder Singh graced the event with his words of wisdom. At last, the Secretary General adjourned the session.

