Main Ideas : • The National Seminar commenced with an atmosphere of reverence and scholarly enthusiasm. Ms. Rhythm and Mr. Praneev opened the event by introducing the Divinity Society, followed by a soulful kirtan recitation that set a contemplative tone for the day, followed by felicitation of chairman sir and our eminent speakers by shawls and planters. • The Welcome Address was delivered by Dr. Kamla, Seminar Convenor & Convenor, Civil Society, Department of Political Science, who warmly greeted the chairman , principal, senior teachers,guests, speakers, and participants, setting the intellectual agenda for the seminar.

- This was followed by a brief introduction of the distinguished speaker by Prof. Gopinath Pillai, Department of Political Science.
- The Inaugural Address was delivered by Prof. Himanshu Roy, Chairperson, Centre for Political Science, Jawaharlal Nehru University. His profound insights enriched the academic spirit of the gathering. Following his address, Prof. Indrajeet Singh and some of our curious students engaged the speaker with a thoughtful and stimulating question answer session.
- The inaugural session concluded with a formal Vote of Thanks by Dr. Bineet Kaur, Department of Political Science.
- Session I: Theoretical Perspectives on Indian Political Thought (11:00 AM – 1:30 PM)
- Session I opened with felicitation of distinguished Speakers after that an enlightening lecture was given by Prof. Ruchi Tyagi, Department of Political Science, Kalindi College, University of Delhi, who presented her talk on “An Overview of Indian Political Thought.”
- This was followed by Dr. Simran Kaur Sethi, Assistant Professor, SGND Khalsa College, who spoke on “Dharma, Power & Resistance: Political Dimensions of Sikh Philosophy.”
- Next, Dr. Akansha, Associate Professor, Indraprastha College for Women, University of Delhi, presented her engaging PowerPoint on “Interpreting the One Reality: Indian Contributions to Metaphysical Thought.”
- This was followed by Dr. Sudeep Kumar, Assistant Professor, DAV College, Kurukshetra University, who delivered a compelling presentation on “Revisiting Kautilya’s Theory of the State: A Comparative Perspective with Contemporary Political Thought.”

- A vibrant Q/A Session followed, during which students actively interacted with the speakers.
- The session concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Dr. Nikhil Kumar, Assistant Professor, SGND Khalsa College.
- A short Lunch Break of thirty minutes followed.
- Session II: Paper Presentation Session 2.00 PM to 3.30 PM
- Session II began with Dr. Radha, Assistant Professor, SGND Khalsa College, presenting her paper on “From Dharma to Democracy: Continuities in Indian Political Thought.”
