About the drive	Enactus organized a special Happiness Day Drive for students. The purpose of the event was to spread happiness and joy among students and create a positive environment in campus. The event started with a warm welcome by the members of the Enactus Society. The students were then invited to participate in a "TAKE WHAT YOU WANT , LEAVE WHAT YOU HAVE" activity that was designed to encourage students to become a better version of themselves. The highlight of the event was a Happiness Wall, where students were encouraged to write their own thoughts (anonymously). They wrote about things they love / would love to have about themselves or a negative thing they would leave to have a positive growth. The event was a huge success, with students expressing their appreciation for the efforts of the

Enactus Society in creating a positive and joyful atmosphere on campus.

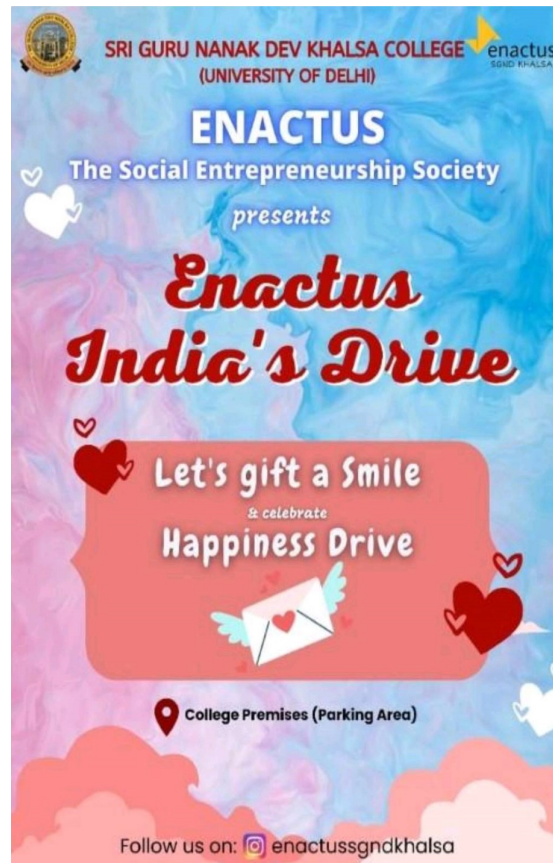

Activities

- Take what you want , leave what you don't want
- Participants were supposed to write down their thoughts (Things they love or would love to love about themselves and the things they would like to abandon to be a better version of themselves.)

Main ideas

- Celebrating the day of happiness by growing into the better version and falling in love with ourselves.
