Activities The Orientation and Audition was organized to welcome freshers and introduce them to MAGUS- the Western Dance Society, its vision, activities, achievements, and opportunities. The event commenced with a prayer led by the Divinity Society, followed by the symbolic lamp-lighting ceremony. This was followed by an introduction to the society and its activities, after which interested students participated in the audition by showcasing their dance skills, expressions, coordination, rhythm and overall performance. The audition aimed to identify enthusiastic and talented students for active participation in MAGUS.
Main Ideas - The event welcomed freshers and introduced them to MAGUS - the Western Dance Society, its vision, activities and achievements. - Students were briefed about the society's dance styles, workshops, upcoming opportunities, and initiatives, followed by an interactive session to encourage participation and involvement. - Interested students participated in the auditions and showcased their dancing skills, expressions, coordination, rhythm, and overall performance. - The audition process aimed to identify talented and enthusiastic students who could become active members of MAGUS and contribute to the society's performances and events.
