

Title of Event: OPEN MIC

Organized by: Asankh Mathematics Society

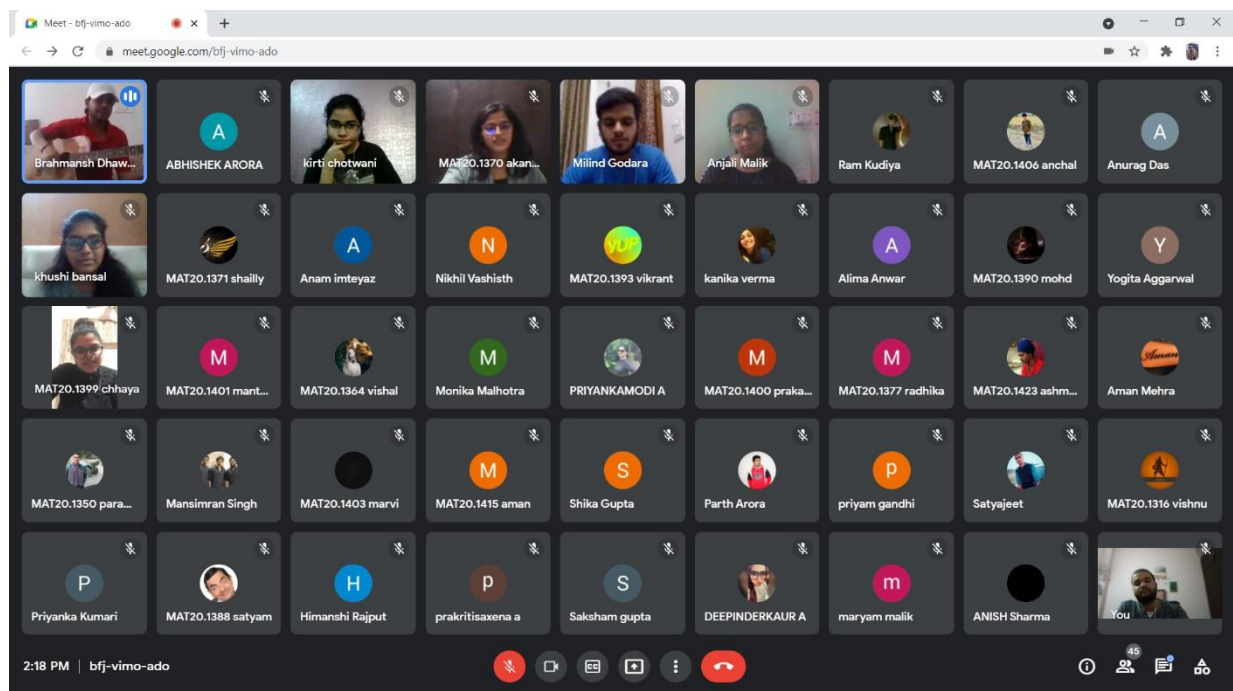

Date: 02 JUNE, 2021

Number of participants: 45

Asankh, the Mathematical Department of SGND Khalsa came up with a very welcoming event for freshers in their department on 2nd June'21, Wednesday via google meets.

The invitations were sent to all the teachers of the mathematics department and to the principal of the college. The “Open Mic” had a panel of judges, they were mainly the teachers. The freshers displayed their talents and were applauded for their enthusiasm and jolly approach. There was no one found who didn't enjoy the extravaganza. The team had also planned a small activity while the judges decided the winners of the talent show. The winners were grateful for the prizes and endearment they received from the teachers and their fellow mates.

Finally Ms. Deepinder Kaur was entitled with the vote of thanks by the vice president of the society. The event was surely successful.
