Introduction to the Speaker by	NA
Activities • Prayer was done by faculty and students • Poem recitation • Kavishri performance • Patriotic song performance • Essay writing • Poster making
Main Ideas • An inter-class co-curricular event comprising literary, cultural, and artistic competitions was successfully organized to foster creative expression, cultural appreciation, and civic awareness among students. • The Poem Recitation and Kavishri performances provided students with a platform to connect with regional oral traditions, poetry, and linguistic heritage, enhancing public speaking and expression skills. • Patriotic song renditions instilled a strong sense of national pride, social responsibility, and collective unity among participants and the audience.

- The Essay Writing competition encouraged structured reasoning, research aptitude, and articulate written communication on contemporary and cultural themes.
- The Poster Making contest enabled students to translate abstract ideas into impactful visual art, showcasing artistic talent and symbolic messaging skills.
- The event successfully drove active student participation, boosted confidence in co-curricular domains, and contributed to overall personality development.
