

Udyamita Speaker Series

Date: 24 March, 2017

Venue: Gallery

Udyamita conducted first of its kind speaker series in the college, which aimed at giving students a chance to communicate with entrepreneurs and learn from their experiences.

Udyamita invited speakers from diverse backgrounds which included owners of Bruised Passports-Savi Munjal and Vidit Taneja and owner of the Art Culinaire-Chef Raminder Bakshi.

Speakers enthralled the audience by sharing their exciting entrepreneurial journey.

Speakers entertained different questions posed by students. Best questions asked, received a special prize from the speakers

Attractive prizes to all attendees were given, sponsored by our gifting partner Nearbuy.

Udyamita was featured in leading news daily -Mail Today and independent student newspaper Du Beat for its successful event.
