Duration	2 hours
Place/Platform	Gallery (Room no . 18)
Number of Participants	Over 70
Guest Speaker/Trainer	NA
Welcome Speech by	Dr. Hardeep Kaur
Introduction to the Speaker by	NA
Activities A three-round, Friends-themed game was organized as part of the orientation, combining memory, teamwork, creativity, and quick thinking in an engaging and interactive setting. ● Round 1: Unagi Challenge – A Google Form-based memory challenge designed to test participants' observation, memory, concentration, and ability to recall information. ● Round 2: Pivot, Pivot, Pivot Challenge – A team-based challenge in which participants worked together to complete a series of fun and engaging tasks, testing their coordination, communication, teamwork, and presence of mind. ● Round 3: Pictionary Challenge – The final round consisted of three rounds of Pictionary, where participants used their drawing and guessing skills to compete against one another. The round tested creativity, quick thinking, and communication. At the end of all three rounds, the participants' performances were evaluated, and the participant with the highest overall score was declared the winner of the event.
Main Ideas ● The event aimed to introduce participants to BISMAN and its core values through fun, interactive, and engaging activities. ● The three rounds encouraged teamwork, cooperation, effective communication, creativity, and mutual understanding. ● The event highlighted the importance of human values such as respect, empathy, trust, and collaboration in building meaningful relationships. ● The orientation aimed to foster a sense of belonging and create a welcoming environment where participants could connect and grow together.

Vote of thanks
