<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Activities● Under the guidance of convenor, Dr. Gurdeep Kaur and under the presidentship of Hargun Kaur Bhasin, a third-year BCH student, the educational trip was successfully organized.● As part of the educational trip to the Taj Mahal in Agra, students visited one of India's most iconic historical landmarks. A knowledgeable guide explained the monument's history, architecture, and cultural significance.● During the visit, the students also had the honor of meeting Mrs. Jyotsana, an esteemed Additional District Judge (ADJ), which made the experience even more special and inspiring.● Students stopped at Diana Point for group photographs with the Taj Mahal in the background.● They admired the ivory-white marble, explored the Charbagh gardens, and observed the intricate craftsmanship of the royal cenotaphs, making the visit a memorable learning experience.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Main Ideas● Stepping into the heart of India's history, our group embarked on an unforgettable journey to Agra. Guided by stories of a bygone era, we finally stood before the Taj Mahal and captured cherished group photos at Diana Point.● We were truly mesmerized by the ivory-white marble, which seemed to glow against the horizon with a timeless, ethereal elegance.● After admiring the symmetrical Charbagh and the intricate artistry of the royal cenotaphs, we departed carrying with us the quiet, breathtaking magic of a wonder that stays with the soul.
