<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Activities● The stadium was transformed into a vibrant arena of talent during this year's Inter-College Sports Competition. Students from various colleges across the city participated enthusiastically, bringing great energy to a range of athletic events, with a strong focus on track and field activities.● The inaugural ceremony of Sports Day began with Principal Sir, Dr. Baljeet Singh, along with the Sports President of our college, Yugran Maan, ignited the ceremonial torch, symbolizing the spirit of sportsmanship and unity. Parents of Shaheed Vijyant Thapar, Col V.N. Thapar & Mrs. Tripta Thapar, also graced the occasion with their presence.● A key moment for our society, S.E.V.A., was the ceremonial March Past, which was led by the S.E.V.A. Society president, Hargun Kaur Bhasin, third-year student of BCH, where all members of society marched in unison, reflecting discipline and unity. The excitement grew further when S.E.V.A. Society convener, Dr. Gurdeep Kaur, won a prize, bringing pride and celebration to the team. The event concluded with the formal extinguishing of the sports flame, marking the successful end of the competition.
