- Key Highlights of the Seminar

1. Politics Amid Global Transitions : The speakers deliberated on the changing nature of global politics, the rise of populism, shifting power dynamics, and challenges to democratic institutions. Discussions focused on how international relations are being reshaped due to geopolitical tensions and technological advancements. The keynote address emphasized the importance of youth participation in politics and civic engagement in strengthening democracy.

2. Economic Transformations: The seminar explored the impact of globalization, digital economies, and economic inequalities. Experts discussed how developing nations are adapting to economic disruptions caused by global crises, technological revolutions, and policy reforms.
3. The discussion also highlighted sustainable development, economic resilience, and policy innovation in emerging economies.

- Media Culture and Society

A significant portion of the seminar focused on the evolving media landscape:

- The rise of digital media.
- Social media influence on political discourse.
- Media ethics and responsibility.
- The role of journalism in democratic societies

The eminent speaker stressed the responsibility of media in combating misinformation and promoting informed citizenship.

- Academic Engagement: The seminar witnessed active participation from faculty members, research scholars, and students. Interactive question-and-answer sessions allowed participants to engage directly with the speakers, enriching the academic environment. Room No. 112 hosted parallel Academic discussions and paper presentations, encouraging interdisciplinary dialogue.

- Outcome of the Seminar : The seminar successfully: Created a platform for international academic exchange, Encouraged critical thinking among students, Strengthened interdisciplinary collaboration, Provided exposure to global perspectives.

Participants gained deeper insights into the interconnectedness of politics, economy, and media in shaping contemporary societies

- Conclusion

The Interdisciplinary International Seminar on “Politics, Economy and Media Culture: Amid Global Transitions” proved to be a confluence of intellect and global perspectives. The event highlighted the significance of dialogue, research, and collaborative learning in understanding the complexities of our rapidly changing world. The seminar concluded with a vote of thanks extended to the distinguished guests, organising committees, faculty members, and participants for making the event a grand success.
