Main Ideas

- Deconstruction
  - It is not a method and cannot be transformed into one— one cannot apply Deconstruction— it is an ongoing process of interrogation. It does not exist to take apart one structure or replace it with another. It is simply to reveal the inner logic of that structure to better understand it.
  - Différance, différence plays on the fact that the French verb différer means both "to defer" and "to differ"
    - Differ- spatial
    - Defer- temporal
    - Violent hierarchy
- Hauntology
  - no ethics, no politics, whether revolutionary or not, seems possible, or thinkable, and just that does not recognize in its principle the respect for those others who are not yet there, presently living , whether they are already dead or not yet born”(xviii).
  - He posits that this puts us, who belong to the present, in a position of responsibility for justice concerning those who are not present. Justice must carry from the present, ‘my life’, to future, ‘our life’. Justice here is a movement towards a living on, “Sur-vie”. One must reckon with the le plus d’un (“more than one/no more one”) He calls it the ‘new internationalism’.
