| Activity | VIRSA- the history society of Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College, University of Delhi hosted a specialised talk on the topic “Revolutionaries in the Indian National Movement” On 1st of October 2024 which was presented to us by our very esteemed guest speaker Professor Dr. Bhuvan Kumar Jha currently serving as an associate professor in the Department of History, University of Delhi. |
| Main Idea | The talk mostly revolved around the topic of Revolutionary nationalism which was one of the several political strands that went into the making of the Indian national movement. Dr. Bhuvan Jha very calmly made us familiar with the important role which was played by revolutionary groups in creating an upsurge and awareness among the youth, which was constructively harnessed by mass movements. He repeatedly talked about the role of revolutionaries such as K.B Menon, Sohan Singh Bhakna, Bikaji Cama, Khudiram Bose, Vinayak Damodar Savarkar, Bhai Parmanand. The talk ranged from the early revolutionary trends to the various pinnacles which came during the struggle up until the decline of the movement. Not only important historical episodes were mentioned by Dr. Bhuvan Jha but also minute details regarding these episodes were also provided to the listeners. Various sources from where the listeners could access these informations was also included in the talk to help them gain an insight in the role of revolutionaries in the Indian National Movement. |
