Main Ideas

1. To introduce the society to students: The orientation aimed to familiarize students with RAAGRIX, its vision, activities, and the opportunities it provides to students interested in music.
2. To encourage participation in musical activities: The event motivated students who are passionate about music to come forward, interact with the society, and showcase their talents.
3. To recruit new members: Through the audition process, the society aimed to identify and select talented students who could become active members of RAAGRIX.
4. To evaluate musical skills: The auditions helped assess participants' vocal and instrumental abilities, ensuring that selected members could contribute effectively to the society's performances and events.
