Main Ideas International Mother Tongue Day is celebrated every year on February 21. The purpose of this day is to promote languages worldwide and highlight the importance of one's mother tongue. Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College, which plays a significant role in promoting the Punjabi language and culture, celebrates this day in a special way each year. Various competitions are organized for students, which help instill love and respect for one's mother tongue among the younger generation. Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College's efforts contribute significantly to the preservation and promotion of linguistic heritage.
