POLICY OF FEE CONCESSION

The College grants fee concession to the needy students of the College. The students admitted to undergraduate courses in the College can avail the fee concession under the following categories:

- (1) Students whose family income is less than 2 lac per annum.
- (2) Second and Third year students seeking fee concession should have cleared all previous year papers.
- (3) B.A (Hons.) Business Economics and B.A. (Hons.) Hindi Journalism and Mass Communication students cannot avail this facility (being self financing courses).

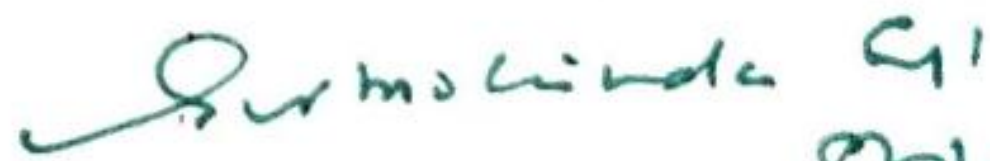

Students who fall into the above mentioned criterion have to provide the following documents:

- (a) Income certificate (For the students who are applying for first time)
- (b) Fee Receipt
- (c) Recent college student I-D card copy
- (d) Personal details that are mentioned in the notice along with the application form
- (e) Previous year Mark sheets of Second and Third Year Students

It is mandatory for the students to have their own Savings bank account to avail the facility of fee concession.

If the students satisfy the above criterion and are eligible, then they have to appear for an interview which is conducted by the Students welfare Committee of the college.

The decision of the Students welfare Committee is final and binding.
