Activities: In the Film Making Competition organized by the NSS Team of Maharaj Agrasen College, our NSS volunteers actively participated and showcased their talent by creating impactful films on the theme of "Drug Free India." Their entries emphasized the importance of a drug-free society, promoting awareness and inspiring positive change among the viewers. Our NSS volunteers secured 2nd position in this competition.

Main Ideas: The main idea behind the Film Making Competition was to raise awareness about the urgent need for a "Drug Free India." Our NSS volunteers creatively expressed this idea through their films, using storytelling and cinematography to drive home the message. Their efforts aimed to instill a sense of responsibility among the audience and encourage collective action against drug abuse.

Feedback: The competition received an overwhelming response, with the audience deeply moved by the thought-provoking films created by our NSS volunteers. The films succeeded in effectively conveying the adverse effects of drug abuse and the significance of a drug-free society. The impactful visuals and compelling narratives left a lasting impression, earning appreciation for the volunteers' dedication and creativity in addressing this critical social issue. The event's success further reinforced our NSS Team's commitment to driving positive change through the power of cinema.
