Admission Policy for minority Sikh Students in the Colleges maintained by Delhi Sikh Gurdwara Management Committee and affiliated with University of Delhi

Sir,

Delhi Sikh Gurdwara Management Committee represents the Sikhs in Delhi and manages many Gurdwaras and educational institutions including institutions of higher learning in Delhi. Four of our Colleges i.e. Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Guru Gobind Singh College of Commerce, Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College and Mata Sundri College for Women are the constituent Colleges of the University of Delhi. These colleges have been declared minority educational institutions by the National Commission for Minorities Educational Institutions, Government of India. The Hon'ble High Court, Delhi has also endorsed three of our Colleges namely Sri Guru Gobind Singh College of Commerce, Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College and Mata Sundri College for Women as Minority Educational Institutions. The case of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College is subjudice and likely to be decided soon.

We submit that we shall follow the following admission policy for three colleges which have been endorsed as Minority Educational Institutions ;

1. For Entrance based courses like (a) BMS and (b) B.A. (Hons.) Business Economics, (c) B.El.Ed, the colleges will follow University admission process. However we request University of Delhi to make a separate category for Sikh Minority students and allocate it to these colleges separately as per seat allocation to these colleges.
2. For all other courses based on Cut-Off, these colleges will follow University Registration process. The colleges will accept students (General as well as Minority) who have registered centrally with the University of Delhi. However to make admission more accessible to Sikh Minority Students, these colleges will additionally register Sikh Minority Students on its own and accept them for admission too.

I hope this has clarified our position with regard to admission policy for academic session 2016-17.

Yours Faithfully
