5. Collected and sorted donated items into appropriate categories for easy distribution.
6. Guided contributors regarding the types of items that could be donated and explained the purpose of the drive.
7. Worked in teams to manage the collection centre, receive donations, and ensure smooth coordination throughout the event.
8. Faculty members visited the donation desk, appreciated the volunteers, and encouraged greater participation.
9. Conducted the drive in an organized and disciplined manner while promoting the values of kindness, sharing, and community service.
10. Successfully concluded the event with active participation from the college community and a substantial collection of useful items for those in need.

Main Ideas

1. To encourage a spirit of sharing and caring towards the underprivileged.
2. To promote the values of kindness, compassion, and social responsibility among students.
3. To create awareness about the importance of helping the community through voluntary service.
4. To encourage the reuse of clothes, books, stationery, and other essential items instead of wasting them.
5. To inspire students to actively participate in social welfare activities through the National Service Scheme (NSS).
6. To strengthen teamwork, leadership, and organizational skills among NSS volunteers.
7. To foster a spirit of empathy and collective responsibility within the college community.
8. To contribute towards the welfare of society by collecting essential items for people in need.
