"The tyrant dies and his rule is over, the martyr dies and his rule begins"

"I HAVE NO REGRETS, EVEN IF I BECAME A HUMAN AGAIN, I WILL JOIN THE ARMY AND FIGHT FOR MY NATION"

-BY "SHAHEED CAPTAIN. VIJAYANT THAPPER VIR CHAKRA"

This quote best reflects the personality of Captain Vijayant Thapar. He was an officer of the Indian Army of the regiment 2 Rajputana Rifles and was posthumously awarded The Vir Chakra for his audacious bravery during the Kargil War. He fell leading an attack of 2 Rajputana Rifles at Tololing (Black Rocks -KNOLL) during the Kargil War on 29 June 1999 at the young age of 22 years.

He was a fourth-generation officer in his family. Born on 26 Dec 1976 at Nangal Punjab, he studied at various schools in different cities and finally graduated from S.G.N.D Khalsa College, University of Delhi. He was a member of the National Cadet Corps of the college. This NCC department was later renamed "VIJAYANT" after this intrepid hero. Thapar worked single-mindedly to fulfill his ambition to join the Forces. One day his hard work paid off. He was selected in the Indian Military Academy, Dehradun. Who knew then, his name would be written in Gold on the walls of the same academy. Such was his ardor towards the motherland that the words in his last letter read, “I have no regrets, in fact even if I become a human again, I’ll join the army and fight for my nation.”
