Activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The guest speaker was welcomed and felicitated with a plant pot.</li><li>• The session incorporated visuals of Jangarh Shyam's paintings.</li><li>• The seminar was informative and interactive, with students asking engaging questions.</li><li>• The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Nidhi Sharma</li></ul>
Main Idea	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The lecture presented Adivasi art as a medium of cultural identity and lived experience. It emphasized indigenous agency and the importance of respectful representation of tribal cultures.</li></ul>

- It emphasized that tribal art is not decorative but a lived expression of indigenous experience.
- A key theme was agency, explaining how art allows marginalized communities to represent themselves.
- The discussion also noted the historical exclusion of tribal artists from mainstream art spaces.
- The speaker also critiqued labels like Primitivism that oversimplify indigenous art.
