BLENDED LEARNING BRINGS TOGETHER THE BEST OF BOTH CLASSROOM LEARNING AND E-LEARNING. IT IS THE IDEAL SOLUTION ALL-AROUND AS IT APPEALS TO ALL LEARNING STYLES, CIRCUMSTANCES, NEEDS AND DEMANDS. THE LEARNERS HERE-IN HAVE SOME ELEMENT OF CONTROL OVER TIME, PLACE, PATH OR PACE. HOWEVER THE EFFECTIVENESS DEPENDS ON THE DELIVERY STYLE, CONTENT, TOOLS AND ABILITY TO ENGAGE THE LEARNER. THIS E-FDP IS A SYNERGETIC EFFORT TO BUILD OUR CAPACITIES IN THAT DIRECTION.
Any individual currently working with HEI in academic role can join the E-FDP on Blended Learning.
The registration will open on 16 May 2020 Saturday at 10:00 a.m. and will automatically close on enrollment of 100 participants. Only the selected participants will be communicated through registered email. The registration link will be shared seperately.
It is essential for the participants to attend the entire E-FDP and complete the self-study assignments daily, given there-in to become eligible for the e-certificate.
The E-FDP confirms to the NAAC/UGC Norms of minimum 40 hours and is being offered free of cost.

• Teachers require suitable training and development to be effective online educators. It cannot be assumed that a good teacher in a traditional classroom will automatically be a good teacher in an online classroom.
• Teachers will undergo rigorous training in learner-centric pedagogy and on how to become high-quality online content creators themselves using online teaching platforms and tools. There will be emphasis on the teacher's role in facilitating active student engagement with the content and with each other.

- Innovative teaching methods for Business Organisation and Management-1st year

  - In order to cover the syllabus of BOM, various teaching methodologies were used over the semester including case study, flipped classroom, presentations, game-based teaching among others. As revision classes were going on, a twist on the popular game of 'Dumb Charades' was organised keeping in mind the interests of the class. Students enacted the various management topics covered in the class. This was followed by an Emoticon Quiz to guess various management topics from the syllabus. The response was overwhelming and gave the students' morale a boost being able to recall those concepts. This was followed by a discussion on all these management concepts to develop and improve the conceptual understanding.

- Innovative teaching methods for Business Organisation and Management, Semester-I and Organisational Behaviour, Semester-VI

- With the aim of making the teaching-learning process more interactive and fruitful, a number of innovative methods were used throughout the semester. These included power-point presentations, Role-playing, quiz, case studies with real world situations. All these were meant to impart a practical application to the concepts taught in class. Also, to make revision class more interesting and ensure more participation, instead of the usual question-answer pattern, a Puzzle was given to the students covering all the important topics. It aimed at checking the conceptual clarity of students. The students participated with much more interest and a zeal to find the maximum answers.

- To make students understand the practical applicability and relevance of Johari Window model which is one of the most important techniques of Transactional Analysis, students were asked to analyse and share with their classmates' different aspects of their personality taking into account the four quadrants of the model. Through the mechanisms of Feedback and Disclosure, the exercise definitely helped in improving the inter-personal relations amongst the classmates.

NOTICE

The IQAC and Mentoring Group under MMP program will hold a session for the faculty with Ms. Avneet Kaur, an inspirational speaker, on Monday 8th March at 2:50pm, on the theme of "Managing the Self".

Through this session, our aim would be to encourage the student to recognise their ability, align life goals to one's ability, acknowledge what one wants and not what is expected of one from family and friends. It can include self and family/friends; career and family; Understanding when and what is enough. Not taking undue stress for social and material goals but understanding that one needs little to be happy and content. Managing expectations can also be discussed.

This session is for the faculty. The learnings from this may be carried forward into the mentoring classes in the following weeks, wherein teachers can discuss these subjects with their mentees.

We look forward to your participation. The details of the scheduled meeting are:
