Activities: The NSS Unit had the privilege of attending a lecture on "Democracy and the Election System in India" organized by Anup Chanda Pandey, the Election Commissioner of India. This event provided a unique opportunity for the participants to delve into the intricacies of India's democratic process and gain insights into the functioning of its election system. By attending this lecture, the NSS Unit demonstrated a keen interest in understanding the foundations of democracy and its significance in the context of the Indian electoral landscape.
Main Ideas: The main idea behind the event was to foster a deeper understanding of democracy and the election system in India. By hosting a lecture delivered by the Election Commissioner of India, Anup Chanda Pandey, and presiding over it with the esteemed presence of Prof. Yogesh Singh, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor of the University of Delhi, the event sought to impart essential knowledge about democratic principles and the crucial role citizens play in shaping the nation's governance through the electoral process.
