Activities • Welcoming the Guest & Formal Opening: The event commenced with the arrival of the honorable Guest Speaker, Senior Prof. Navnita C. Behera. The formal proceedings began with an opening address introducing the vision of the G20 Society. • Divine Invocations: The event commenced on an auspicious note with the traditional rendition of the holy Shabad to invoke divine blessings for the gathering. • Lamp Lighting Ceremony: The auspicious Lamp Lighting ceremony was conducted jointly by the Guest Speaker Prof. Navnita C. Behera, Convenor Dr. Gurdeep Kaur, Co-Convenor Dr. Ramneet Kaur and other distinguished faculty members present. • Felicitation of the Guest Speaker: As an eco-friendly welcome gesture, potted saplings were presented to honor the guests. Convenor Dr. Gurdeep Kaur and Co-Convenor Dr. Ramneet Kaur, along with Mr. Harsh Varshney, Mr. Deepak Kumar and Mr. Ankit Tomar, felicitated guest speaker Senior Prof. Navnita C. Behera. Additionally, Dr. Shailja and Dr. Nikhil Jain presented a potted plant to Senior Accounts Officer Mrs. Jaspreet Kaur. • Badge Ceremony: A solemn Badge Ceremony was held to honor and officially badge the newly appointed office bearers, entrusting them with their roles and responsibilities for the academic session.

• Keynote Address: Senior Prof. Navnita C. Behera delivered an insightful lecture on the topic "Re-Imagining IR in India", shedding light on evolving perspectives in international relations and India's growing global role. • Interactive Q&A Session: A dynamic Question & Answer session followed the lecture, where students actively engaged with the guest speaker, discussing global politics, diplomacy, and academic insights. • Vote of Thanks: The session concluded with a formal vote of thanks by President Samarth Saxena expressed to the Guest Speaker, faculty convenors and student attendees for making the inaugural event a resounding success.
Main Ideas • De-colonizing International Relations: Re-evaluating traditional, Western-centric theories of International Relations (IR) to build a framework rooted in Global South experiences and Indian intellectual traditions. • India's Evolving Role in Global Governance: Highlighting how India's strategic autonomy, diplomatic engagements, and leadership (such as the G20 presidency) are reframing contemporary global dynamics. • Non-Western Perspectives & Epistemology: Emphasizing the importance of incorporating indigenous knowledge systems, historical context, and diverse cultural narratives into mainstream political science discourse. • Empowering Youth in Policy & Diplomacy: Encouraging students to critically analyze international affairs and actively contribute to India's emerging narrative on the world stage.
Vote of thanks	Mr. Samarth Saxena (BCP- Semester 5 th)
